Labour Standards Policy

VERSION: 1.00

Purpose & Scope

This policy statement summarises the underlying framework for Human Resources, Human Rights and Labour Standards as approved and published internally for Crest Medical Holdings Limited.

Crest Medical Group's principal asset is its people and their commitment to provide a consistent and quality service to its customers. As such the Group recognises the relationship between poor labour standards and poor service levels.

We are committed to ensuring both the Group and its suppliers achieve the acceptable labour standards at all times.

In conducting its business and striving to meet its corporate aims, our employees and directors will adopt the following principles:

- Exercise honesty and diligence in performing their duties and undertaking their responsibilities
- Maintain high standards of integrity, morality and competence
- Not contravene national laws and relevant regulations in the conduct of their duties
- Not enter into any activity that may result in a conflict of interest with the company
- Not accept anything of value which could be described as an inducement or which could impair their judgement
- Not use the company's confidential information for personal gain
- Not act in a manner that could discredit the company, customers or suppliers
- To operate an ethical workplace
- Be loyal in all matters affecting the company, including matters relating to customers and others with whom the company has a commercial relationship
- Not permit any act by an employee that is considered to be corrupt either under relevant law or by reference to good business practice

Principles

Fairness and Human Dignity

It is Crest's commitment to provide a workplace environment where employees are recognised as the most valuable asset, treated with respect, dignity and consideration. This commitment is built upon a framework of policies and procedures designed to ensure fairness in the recruitment, retention, training, and development of all employees.

Labour Standards Policy

Discrimination

Our employment policies for recruitment, selection, training, development and promotion are designed to ensure that no job applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment on the grounds of age, race, colour, nationality, ethnicity, religion, gender, marital status, disability, sexual orientation or offending background that does not create any risk to the company, colleagues, vulnerable adults or children.

Subject to the need to ensure necessary protection as above, we will make every effort to prevent discrimination against those with criminal records.

- All recruitment procedures are designed to encourage applications from all sections of the community and all abilities.
- We ensure all application processes are user friendly and avoid unnecessary barriers
- We will continue to identify underrepresented, disadvantaged or excluded groups
- Equal opportunities data is collected, analysed, and used to inform our planning and decision-making processes

Human Rights

- Each person that works with Crest shall be treated with dignity and shall not be subjected to any harassment, physical or mental punishment or other forms of abuse
- We promote effective engagement through our business and welcome open and sincere feedback from all colleagues on all matters of the company's business interest.
  - There is an effective Grievance management process in place at Crest, which is transparent, and equitable to enable the remediation of any abuse of human rights and the impacts that may arise.

Child labour and forced or compulsory Labour

- Crest Medical does not and will not engage in or support the use of child labour, including:
  - Sale and Trafficking of children for use in forced labour
  - Armed Conflict
